

Brand Profile

Taste profile

An American-style Amber ale with a rich amber color, a distinctive citrus hop aroma, robust caramel malt flavor and a pleasant, hoppy finish. The perfect balance of malt and hop flavor.

Ingredients

Carefully brewed with a blend of pale and caramel malted barley from America's Heartland. Dry-hopped with Cascade hops from the Pacific Northwest to give the beer a citrus aroma upfront. A blend of 4 domestic hops are added for additional hop flavor and aroma.
